Child Support shall be:

- due one-half on the first and one-half on the fifteenth day of each month

The amount of child support is set forth as calculated under the guideline.

OR

WE AGREE TO NON-GUIDELINE CHILD SUPPORT. The child support agreed to by the parties is below or above guideline. Pursuant to Family Code Section 4065(a), the parties declare that they have been fully informed of their rights concerning child support. Neither party is acting out of duress or coercion. Neither party is receiving public assistance and no application for public assistance is pending. The needs of the children will be adequately met by this agreed-upon amount of child support; the agreement is in the best interests of the children involved. Application of the guideline amount would be unjust or inappropriate in this case. If the order is below the guideline, no change of circumstances will be required to

The parent ordered to provide health insurance must seek continuation of coverage for the child after the child attains the age when the child is no longer considered eligible for coverage as a dependent under the insurance contract, if the child is incapable of self-sustaining employment because of a physically or mental disabling injury, illness, or condition and is chiefly dependent upon the parent providing health insurance for support and maintenance when health insurance coverage is available at no cost or at a reasonable cost to the parent or parents, as applicable.

ZERO SUPPORT/RESERVED – LONG-TERM MARRIAGE. Neither party shall receive spousal support from the other. The court reserves jurisdiction over this issue for the benefit of either party as this was a long-term marriage.

NOTICE: It is the goal of this State that each party must make reasonable good faith efforts to become self-supporting as provided for in Family Code section 4320. The failure to make reasonable good faith efforts may be one of the factors considered by the Court as a basis for modifying or terminating support.
