

TurboCourt™ – San Bernardino

Interactive Unlawful Detainer Program

On-Line forms preparation and beginning February 27th, 2012, e-filing help for you.

- ✓ Do you want the convenience of electronically submitting your Unlawful Detainer forms rather than filing at the courthouse?
- ✓ Do you want the convenience of completing your forms in the comfort of your own home or office, or the library?
- ✓ Do you want to learn about starting or responding to Unlawful Detainers?

Try www.turbocourt.com/california/

TurboCourt™ will guide you through a simple interview making sure you have answered every important question required. Easy to understand help on every relevant topic is just a mouse click away, and you will be well prepared to come to Court.

TurboCourt™:

- Asks you basic, easy-to-understand questions
- Completes your forms automatically based on your responses
- Gives you the opportunity to learn more about legal terms and court procedures
- Allows you to provide more information than the standard court forms
- Text has been reviewed by consultants to ensure that the questions, instructions, and information are easy to understand
- Allows you to print your completed forms for filing with the Court

TurboCourt™ San Bernardino County - for extra convenience, help, and preparedness

A computer with Internet connection is required. Computers are available at your local library.
Approved for use by the San Bernardino County Clerk of the Court.