SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, Plaintiff, vs. (DEFENDANT NAME), Defendant <hr style="width: 100%;"/>	)))))))))))	CASE NO. (specify case number) EX-PARTE ORDER FOR FUNDS PURSUANT TO PENAL CODE SECTION 987.2
---	--	--

The Court having read and considered the defense’s ex-parte application for an order authorizing defense funds pursuant to Penal Code Section 987.2 (P.C. § 987.2), the Court finds that a sufficient showing has been made that the defendant does not have the means or ability to pay for legal assistance necessary for the defense in this cause, and that ancillary defense funding at government expense is reasonably necessary for payment of the following in the preparation and presentation of the defense as follows:

[Set forth the specific proposed ancillary defense expenditure(s), on separate lines if more than one, and, if applicable, the name, title (if applicable), nature of service to be rendered (e.g., investigator, forensic expert, etc.) and number of hours and hourly rate being requested for expert, with the subtotal dollar amount for each line item to be approved.. (Also specify if an extraordinary expert billing rate above those specified in the Court’s Local Rules or

1 Appointed Service Fee Schedule is being requested (must be justified in supporting declaration),
2 and/or; if an individual to be appointed is to be allowed defendant detention center visitations.]

3 Payment shall be made by the Auditor/Controller of the County of San Bernardino upon
4 submittal of an appropriate itemized claim on Court forms and presentation of original invoices
5 or receipts, and upon verification of the claim by the Court, for expenditures and services
6 rendered at the authorized rate and mileage at the current Court-approved rate.

7 It is so ordered.
