CRIMINAL RULES

RULE 1300

California Rules of Court shall apply as supplemented by the following local rules. (Eff. July 1, 1998.)

RULE 1301

Felony, misdemeanor and infraction matters shall be filed and heard pursuant to Rule 131. (Eff. July 1, 1998. As amended, eff. January 1, 2017.)

RULE 1311 PRIORITY OF PROTECTIVE ORDERS AND MODIFICATION

- (a) This Rule sets forth the court communication protocol for Domestic Violence and Child Custody Orders as required by California Rules of Court, Rule 5.445. The purpose of this Rule is to avoid conflicting orders whenever possible, and to permit appropriate visitation between a restrained person and his or her child while providing for the safety of all victims and witnesses and the proper consideration of the best interests of the child.

- (b) Pursuant to Penal Code, section 136.2(c) and (e) and Family Code, sections 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b), Criminal Protective Orders take precedence over all other protective orders issued by the Civil, Family, Juvenile and Probate Courts, unless an emergency protective order issued by another court, or a no-contact order under Family Code, section 6320, sets forth more restrictive terms against a restrained party.

- (c) When the Criminal Court issues a Criminal Protective Order:
  - (1) The Criminal Court shall determine whether there are any minor children of the relationship between the defendant/restrained person and the victim/protected person, and whether there are any court orders for custody/visitation for those minor children.
  - (2) If there are minor children, the Criminal Court shall consider whether peaceful contact with the victim/protected person should be allowed for the purpose of allowing defendant/restrained person to visit the minor children. Peaceful contact with the minor children and victim/protected person shall be permitted under any Criminal Protective Order for the purpose of attending court-ordered mediation and/or Family Court hearings.
  - (3) The Criminal Court shall also determine whether there are any existing orders involving the defendant/restrained person, the victim/protected person, and/or the minor children. The court shall examine available databases for existing orders before issuing a permanent Criminal Protective Order.
  - (4) If the Criminal Protective Order includes minor children as named protected parties, the order may be made explicitly subject to modification by a judge of the Civil, Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court. If this qualifying clause is not included in the Criminal Protective Order, the order may not be modified without notification and consent of the Department of the court assigned to the criminal case. It is the policy of the Superior Court of San Bernardino County that the Juvenile Court is best equipped to determine the best interests of any minor children, and the criminal court shall give due consideration to making the criminal court order expressly subject to modification by the Juvenile Court whenever a Juvenile Court case is pending or is likely to be initiated.

- (5) When the Criminal Court issues a Criminal Protective Order that lists the defendant/restrained person's minor child or children as protected persons, the Criminal Court shall transmit a copy of the order to any Civil, Family, Juvenile, or Probate Court in which a matter concerning the defendant and the protected minor or minors is pending.
- (d) When a Criminal Protective Order exists and a judicial officer in another court has a case in which he or she determines that it is appropriate to permit visitation different than that provided for in the Criminal Protective Order and that order has not been made expressly subject to modification by the court desiring a modification of the order:
- (1) The Judicial Assistant for the judicial officer requesting modification of the Criminal Protective Order shall contact the court clerk for the Criminal Court to inform the Criminal Court that a modification is requested and shall inform the court clerk for Criminal Court of all pertinent information, including the terms of the proposed modification and the identity of all parties to the action over which the judge requesting a modification has jurisdiction.
  - (2) The Criminal Court shall set a hearing date on the request for a modification for no later than 30 calendar days after the receipt of the request for modification, or as soon thereafter as the court's calendar allows, and shall provide notification in writing to all parties to both the criminal case and the matter in which the modification request was made. Such notice shall inform all parties of the modification request, the terms of the proposed modification and the hearing date, and shall specifically indicate that a request for modification has been made pursuant to this Rule.
  - (3) Any written opposition to the modification request shall be filed no later than 9 court days prior to the hearing and shall be served in the manner provided for the filing of oppositions in Chapter 5 of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Any reply to any opposition shall be served and filed in the manner allowed by the Code.
  - (4) The hearing date on the proposed modification shall not be continued except on a showing of good cause.
  - (5) After hearing, and after consideration of the proposed modification and all arguments in favor and in opposition to the proposed modification, the Criminal Court shall, in its discretion, modify the Criminal Protective Order as requested, or make such other modifications to the Criminal Protective Order as the court deems appropriate, or decline to modify the Criminal Protective Order, stating the reasons for the court's decision to accept, modify or reject the proposed modification on the record.
  - (6) The Criminal Court shall transmit a copy of its order on the proposed modification to the court making the request for modification.
- (e) For the purposes of this Rule:
- (1) "Criminal Court" means a Department of this Court assigned to a criminal case.

- (2) “Civil Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to a civil case.
- (3) “Juvenile Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to juvenile cases.
- (4) “Family Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to family cases.
- (5) “Probate Court” means a Department of this Court assigned to probate cases.
- (6) A “Criminal Protective Order” is a restraining order or protective order against the defendant in a criminal case issued by a criminal court as a term of probation, bail release or own recognizance release prohibiting the defendant from communicating or contacting any specified person, category of persons or a specified witness or victim.

RULE 1320 P. C. 995 MOTIONS

P.C. 995 motions shall be heard in the department scheduled to hear the trial on the case. However, if the trial Court was the committing magistrate, then the motion shall be heard by another judicial officer. If the motion is denied on its merits, the case shall be assigned back to the original judicial officer.

Moving papers filed in support of P.C. 995 motions must include the following:

- (a) A brief statement in summary form of the facts as set forth in the transcript.
- (b) A statement of the issues, specifically identifying in what regard the People's case is defective.
- (c) Where defendant intends to rely upon some testimony in the transcript, the moving papers shall contain references to such testimony identified as to page and line number of the transcript.
- (d) A statement of the authorities upon which defendant relies with explanation as to why they are applicable. (Mere citation of sections in the California Penal Code and the U.S. Constitution shall not be sufficient.)

(Former Rule 455, eff. May 27, 1982. Renumbered as Rule 1320 and amended, eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, eff. January 1, 2008. As amended, eff. January 1, 2017.)

RULE 1322 TRANSFER OF CASES

Probation Revocation:

1. If a defendant has an active, pending case in any Superior Court District, then any revocation of probation case shall be transferred to that District.
2. Supervising Criminal Judges of the respective Districts may transfer cases between them.

Notwithstanding Rule 1301, in situations where a defendant has multiple criminal cases, the Court should have all of a defendant’s open cases heard in a single primary courtroom.

An open case is one in which the defendant has charges pending, is currently on probation (either formal or informal) or has outstanding fines, fees or restitution.

In deciding which court will be the primary court for purposes of resolving all of the defendant's cases, open cases shall be ranked as follows:

1. New case with felony charges pending
2. Felony probation case
3. New case with misdemeanor charges pending
4. Misdemeanor probation case
5. Cases with only outstanding money balances

The court with the highest ranking case shall be the primary department in resolving all of a defendant's open cases. If a defendant has two new cases with charges pending, the court that has the case with the highest potential exposure, including all enhancements and special allegations, is the primary court.

The primary court has the authority to order all of the defendant's open cases transferred to it without the necessity of contacting the supervising judge of the district from which the case(s) are being ordered.

The primary court is responsible for determining whether the secondary cases have any time problems. After transferring secondary cases to itself the primary court is responsible for resolution of those cases and cannot send them back without authorization of the supervising judge of the original district.

The judge of the primary court is to contact the judge in the other district to whom the case is assigned to arrange for transferring the secondary case to the primary court. If the judges cannot agree on a course of action, then the supervising judges of the districts will determine whether a transfer should occur. (Eff. July 1, 1998. Amended, eff. January 1, 2009.)

The court may make the determination of the ability to pay at the time of appointment of counsel, or thereafter at the request of appointed counsel but not later than 30 days after appointed counsel is relieved as attorney of record.

RULE 20-1306 CONSULTATION WITH OTHER DEPARTMENTS RE HABEAS CORPUS OR CUSTODY PROCEEDINGS

Where a petition for guardianship of the person of a minor is pending, and where it appears to the court that a custody proceeding or a writ of habeas corpus concerning the same minor is pending in any other department of the superior court, proceedings will be suspended until a consultation can be had between the judge of the probate department and the judge of the department in which such proceeding or writ is pending and a determination made as to whether or not such matter should be heard separately or a consolidation arranged. RULE 20-1308 INCREASING AND DECREASING BOND OF GUARDIAN

When an increase in the guardian's bond is ordered, the court favors the filing of an additional bond rather than filing of a substitute bond; and where a decrease in the liability of the guardian's bond is ordered the court favors the use of an order decreasing liability under the existing bond rather than the filing of a substitute. (Former Rule 1410, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1308, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1308, eff. July 1, 2007.)

(Former Rule 1412, rev. Dec. 1993. Renumbered as Rule 1309 and amended, eff. July 1, 1998. Renumbered as Rule 20-1309, eff. July 1, 2007. As amended, eff. January 1, 2018.)

(c) Duplicating, telephone, fax and other costs in guardianship estates - ordinarily the court will not allow reimbursement for costs of duplication of documents, telephone calls, FAX (except court charges), parking fees incurred by the attorney or guardian or ordinary mileage incurred by the attorney or guardian, as these are a part of overhead, and should be absorbed in fees or commissions.

(d) Private professional or licensed guardians or conservators who provide bank or investment account statements pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c) shall provide two sets of documents under separate cover. The first set shall be filed with the court and shall include the account statements for the period preceding appointment (if a first accounting) and the periods for the start and end of the accounting period pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c)(2). The second set shall be lodged with the court separately and shall include the account statements for the rest of the accounting period pursuant to Probate Code section 2620(c)(3). (a) If the conservatorship also involves the person of the conservatee, the accounting petitions shall state the conservatee's residences during the accounting period.

(b) Requests to waive interim accountings under Probate Code section 2628 may be made on an ex parte basis. In all cases in which the conservator seeks an order dispensing with a formal accounting pursuant to section 2628, the beginning and ending dates of the accounting period sought to be waived must be specified. (e) The petition for approval of an account must identify any funds on deposit in a blocked account. Proof of deposit and the blocked account status must be filed with the accounting, which may include bank statements clearly indicating that the funds are held in blocked accounts or a document on letterhead of the financial institution with an original signature of a bank representative.

(f) No account balance may be larger than the amount covered by FDIC insurance.
